

Thursday, May 18, 2017, 4:00 P.M.
AEGEAN RESTAURANT, FRAMINGHAM

“IMPOSING AND COLLECTING FINES”

BE SURE TO ATTEND THIS INFORMATIVE PROGRAM, ORIGINALLY MEANT TO BE A JANUARY-FEBRUARY SEMINAR & DINNER MEETING; BUT MOTHER NATURE INTERVENED! IT IS NOW RESCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY, MAY 18TH

It will take place at the Aegean Restaurant in Framingham. Program starts at 4:00 p.m., with dinner break at 6:00 p.m., followed by completion of program, ending by 9:30 p.m..

Presenters will include Kathleen Connolly, Esq. of Louison, Costello, Condon and Pfaff and James B. Lampke, Esq., Hull Town Counsel. Learn effective ways to impose and collect fines! Share your experiences too. Special questions?- send them to MMLA before meeting.

The meeting fee is $45.00, which includes dinner, program and materials for members current in their dues. For members not current and non-member attorneys, the fee is $55.00. Please be sure to register by returning the registration form enclosed or contact the MMLA office at jlampke@massmunilaw.org, 781-749-9922, fax 781-749-9923. You should also be receiving via email a notice to register for this meeting from Constant Contact. If you are not receiving notices from Constant Contact please let us know and we will put you on their email list for MMLA/Constant Contact notices. PLEASE, IF YOU FAIL TO CANCEL TIMELY YOU WILL BE BILLED FOR YOUR RESERVATION.

Dinner will be a choice of Broiled Haddock, Chicken Kabob or Lamb Souvlaki- choice to be made at dinner time. If you have a special dietary need, please advise.

This is an ideal program to bring others from your community such as Selectmen, Managers, Council Members, City and Town Clerks, Mayors, Administrators, Inspectional Service Team, Police and anyone else involved in enforcing laws, imposing fines and collecting them.

Informative materials will be emailed to registrants who provide their email address.