

Associate Counsel/Instructor

The Office of the Inspector General (Office) seeks a highly motivated individual to provide legal support to the Office's Regulatory and Compliance Division (Division) and serve as an instructor in its Massachusetts Public Purchasing Official (MCPPO) program, a statewide educational program that has trained over 20,000 participants since its creation in 1997. In addition to teaching participants about the Commonwealth's procurement, contracting, construction and ethics laws, the MCPPO program provides practical recommendations and teaches best practices in public purchasing and contracting. The successful candidate will both teach in the MCPPO program and provide legal support to the Division, including conducting legal research, interpreting procurement laws, drafting legal memoranda and offering recommendations.

Candidates must be a member in good standing of the Massachusetts bar and have at least 6 years of relevant experience. Salary range from $60,000 to $72,000. For more information, please visit our website at www.mass.gov/ig.

We are an equal opportunity employer. The Office actively seeks to increase the diversity of its workforce.
