

City of Newton

Assistant City Solicitor/Land Use-Public Construction

The City of Newton Law Department has an opening for a full-time attorney to handle land use matters including special permits, subdivisions and zoning enforcement; real estate acquisitions, dispositions and development; public construction projects and construction dispute resolution. Performs other duties as assigned for the purpose of an in-house municipal law department.

Salary: $92,000-$99,000

Minimum Requirements: J.D. with 5-7 years' experience; member in good standing of the Massachusetts bar; admitted to both the state and federal courts of Massachusetts. Excellent written and oral communications skills. Ability to work independently and handle multiple tasks simultaneously in a fast-paced environment. Attendance at night meetings is required. Experience in litigation a plus.

Individuals interested in the above position must submit a cover letter, resume and completed application found in the Human Resources section of the City website to:

<https://cityofnewton.hyrell.com>

The City of Newton is an Equal Employment/Affirmative Action Employer