

DHCD (MA Department of Housing and Community Development) – Assistant Deputy Chief Counsel.

The Mass. Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) is seeking an Assistant Deputy Chief Counsel to provide agency-wide legal guidance on procurement related issues, develop agency policies and procedures relating to technology contracts and data sharing agreements, review and analyze proposed state legislation and inter-agency policy initiatives, assist the Chief Counsel in preparing information and analysis requested by Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development (EOHED) and/or legislative committees, handle legal tasks related to DHCD programs and provide supervision to Office of General Counsel staff.

The ideal candidate is a member in good standing with the Massachusetts Bar and has at least 5 years' experience practicing law with a concentration in government procurement and contracting and/or technology contracts; demonstrated expertise related to data sharing issues, particularly as they affect data sharing agreements by public agencies; expertise in state and federal procurement and contracting requirements and financial controls; and at least 3 years' experience supervising other attorneys and working on collaborative teams.

For more information and to apply online please visit <https://massanf.taleo.net/careersection/ex/jobdetail.ftl?job=210003P7>