

Associate General Counsel -- Litigation
Massachusetts Water Resources Authority
Charlestown Navy Yard

The MWRA is seeking an Associate General Counsel – Litigation to represent the Authority litigation and legal matters in state and federal courts and before administrative and regulatory agencies. Among other responsibilities, the work includes handling all phases of litigation and legal matters and providing advice and counsel in a wide range of legal areas including construction, contracts, public procurement, personal injury, property damage, environmental, eminent domain, employment and insurance. The position also supervises staff in areas of responsibility.

For complete job description and application requirements see:
<https://mwra.applicantpro.com/jobs/2611633.html>.

The position requires a bachelor's degree, a Juris Doctorate, and an understanding of substantive legal areas such as construction, contracts, public procurement, personal injury, property damage, environmental, eminent domain, employment and insurance. Candidate should also have direct in-court experience as a trial attorney, including jury trial experience, acquired by seven (7) to ten (10) years of related experience. Admission in good standing to practice law in Massachusetts state and federal courts required.

Salary Range: $142K-$149K Annually (Starting salary commensurate with experience)
Eligible to telework up to 50% of the work week after initial waiting period.

Massachusetts Water Resources Authority (MWRA) is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability, sex or gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or veteran status.